

General Information

BENEFITS OF HOSTING

- Recruit new members for your paddling club
- Raise money for your organization
- Tie-in to festivals and other events to increase attendance
- Motivate people to get out and paddle and enjoy Canada's rivers, oceans and lakes
- Increase public awareness of environmental and ecological issues

IT'S EASY

It's easy to host a showing of the WATERWALKER film Festival. We offer a wide variety of excellent films on canoeing, kayaking and the conservation of our environment. You provide the site and we provide the show!

HOST SITES RECEIVE:

When you book the WATERWALKER film Festival you receive:

- Your choice of one feature length or two shorter films from the 2010 Festival (clubs are able to choose from the complete line-up of films to tailor the content of the show to suit their audience)
- Detailed films summaries prior to the event
- PDFs of posters for promotion of your show
- A list of helpful hints on hosting a successful festival
- A free one-year subscription to KANAWA – Canada's Paddling magazine
- Paddle Canada posts a WATERWALKER Film Festival page on its website (www.paddlingcanada.com/waterwalker.asp) to promote the event, local venues, the films presented and contact information for local sites
- We guarantee you the first right of refusal for the next Festival (2011)

Please contact Anne Baxter at 613-342-0599 or e-mail waterwalker@paddlingcanada.com for more information.

HOW DID WATERWALKER COME ABOUT?

The WATERWALKER Film Festival pays tribute to Bill Mason – the great canoeist, filmmaker and conservationist who inspired so many to enjoy Canada's waterways. We hope through this festival to raise public awareness and support for paddling and wilderness conservation.
